

PUBLIC NOTICE

United Nations and Religions - World Organisation

4 December 2023 - The United Nations System in the Kingdom of Eswatini has received several public enquiries regarding an entity going by the name “United Nations and Religions World Organisation.”

The United Nations in Eswatini wishes to advise the public that the said entity is not a part of or affiliated with the United Nations, and the Office of the United Nations Resident Coordinator has advised the Eswatini authorities accordingly.

The United Nations in Eswatini further notes that the use of the United Nations name as part of the entity’s name and the use of the olive branches from the United Nations emblem as part of the entity’s logo have not been authorised.

The UN wishes to clarify that UN recruitments are always undertaken through official, publicly advertised processes, including UN websites, or known social media sites. The UN does not charge any fee at any stage of its recruitment processes and does not request any banking details from candidates.
